

News and Events

March 2017

Welcome to the Town's New Newsletter!

Since becoming First Selectman, improving communication and community has been one of my priorities. To that end, the Town has initiated an enewsletter (sign up here: tinyurl.com/WoodbridgeEnews) and a Town Facebook page (www.Facebook.com/WoodbridgeCT) and improved our website (www.woodbridgect.org).

Today we are launching this Town-wide newsletter to inform you all about the news and events going on in Woodbridge.

This newsletter replaces the Senior Center newsletter, which was mailed to more than 2,200 homes. Now all households will receive news from the Library, Recreation, Human Services, Town Hall and more.

There will be limited space for advertisements to defray costs: The Town will charge $100 per month for a business card size ad, and $500 for a half-page ad on the back page. If you are interested in advertising, contact Betsy Yagla (203-389-3403; byagla@woodbridgect.org).

I am delighted to share this new newsletter with you!

Ellen Scalettar, First Selectman

Police Warn of Bobcat Sightings

The Woodbridge Police Department has received reports of bobcat sightings on Rimmon Road, Peck Hill Road, and Newton Road.

Based on reports from the Department of Environmental Protection, the bobcat population in Connecticut has been increasing over recent years.

Bobcats are most active just after dusk and before dawn, and are patient hunters, meaning that they spend significant time crouching, waiting, stalking, and then ambushing their prey. Their diet ranges from rabbits and squirrels to deer and domestic livestock. Bobcat attacks on humans are extremely rare.

Should you encounter a bobcat, keep as much distance between you and the animal as possible and:

- *Immediately protect children and pets;
- *Back away slowly and deliberately;
- *Avoid running to prevent triggering a pursuit;
- *Make a lot of noise, if possible, to scare the animal away.

If you observe a bobcat that appears to be sick, injured, or is roaming an area frequented by humans, notify the Woodbridge Police Department at 203-387-2511 or Woodbridge Animal Control at 203-389-5991.

Fuel Cell is Celebrated

Gov. Dannel P. Malloy and Department of Energy and Environmental Protection Commissioner Robert Klee visited Woodbridge to announce the completion of a new fuel cell at Amity Regional High School.

The fuel cell can generate up to 2.2 megawatts of clean renewable energy; provides heat for the high school; and will serve as the generation source for the Town's microgrid, which will supply power to municipal buildings during power outages. Construction on the microgrid will begin this spring.

The project is possible because the Town received a $3 million grant from the State of Connecticut. The grant will cover the cost to bury the power lines to create the microgrid, but the Town needed to come up with and fund a power source for the microgrid.

At the same time, UI was looking for projects to meet its commitment to generate a total of 10 megawatts of clean energy. The Town and UI solved each other's problems by installing a UI-owned fuel cell to power the Town's microgrid.

First Selectman Visits Two Local Boutiques

First Selectman Ellen Scalettar visited Today's Clothing on Selden Street and Pamela Hirth Designs on Litchfield Turnpike.

Scalettar has been visiting local businesses to highlight them as part of the "Shop Woodbridge, Dine Woodbridge, Try Woodbridge" campaign.

At Today's Clothing, customers will find European-inspired clothes ranging from simple silk tees to intricately embroidered formal wear as well as funky shoes, handbags, scarves, jewelry and other accessories. "I have fun with my customers and love buying them what they want. The clothes are unique and appeal to women who don't want cookie-cutter clothing," said owner Cynthia Miller.

Pamela Hirth designs and makes her own line of clothing. Hirth describes her style from classic to eclectic with a mixture of fitted and flowy shapes. She makes her signature jackets from upholstery fabric and also offers slinky velvet cocktail dresses, soft everyday cotton tunics and everything in between.

Notice: New Building Codes

A copy of the State of Connecticut's new building codes is at the Woodbridge Town Library.

The new codes were adopted October 1, 2016 and include the 2012 International Building Code, the 2012 International Residential Code and the 2016 Connecticut State Building Code supplement. They will be available in the reference section of the Library.

Residents are encouraged to consult with the Building Department when planning renovations to their homes or businesses. The code information contained in these new books is not available online.

The Building Department is located on the lower level of Town Hall and is open weekdays 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

You will find specific information and permit applications on the Building Department's page on the Town website.

The Building Department can be reached at 203-389-3419.

Bulk Pick Up Begins in March

The Department of Public Works will begin Bulk Pick Up (by appointment only) in March. Appointments can be scheduled through the Public Works Office by calling 203-389-3420.

We ask that residents use this service one time per year to allow for everyone to take advantage of this program. Residents will need to provide a list of items they are placing out for pick up.

Scheduled pick-ups are Tuesdays between 7:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. Items for pick-up should be large household items that don't fit in the trunk of a car such as: large furniture and appliances, gas grills, lawn mowers, carpeting, bed frames and the like.

Bulk pick-up is offered March to May, October and November.

From the Library Director's Desk

This year marks the 90th anniversary of the founding of Woodbridge Town Library in 1927. At that time, the library was limited to a few shelves in Town Hall, and the total circulation during its first year was 286 books. In the 90 years since, much has changed (and our circulation is quite a bit higher), but, as it was all those decades ago, we are still a place that celebrates reading, learning and inspiration. We still have books too – bestsellers, adult books on every conceivable topic, children's books, reference books. And there's still a friendly, knowledgeable staff to welcome you.

But, these days, we also offer things that couldn't even have been conceived of in 1927. We have audiobooks, DVDs, free Wi-Fi, plenty of public computers and hundreds of great programs every year, from technology classes to film screenings and from cooking demonstrations to storytimes.

We also subscribe to plenty of digital resources which you can access from our website at any time with a Woodbridge library card – free, downloadable ebooks, audiobooks, music, movies and magazines, as well as online learning through Lynda.com and product reviews through Consumer Reports Online.

At the Library, we embrace change, but we also know that we must strive to remain the cultural heart of our community.

Eric Werthmann, Library Director

Annual Peeps in the Library Contest

Join us for the third annual Peeps in the Library Contest. This contest is open to all ages as individuals or teams. Registration runs from Monday, March 13 through Saturday, April 1. Register in person at the Information Desk to receive a pack of Peeps and the contest rules to get started.

Participants are challenged to make a diorama of a scene from their favorite book or movie using Peeps as characters. Completed dioramas will be accepted during library hours between Monday, March 27 and Saturday, April 1. The dioramas will be on display from April 3 until April 29. Library patrons will have the opportunity to vote on their favorites until April 21 and winners will be announced on April 24. There will be three prize categories: Adult, Teen, and Child/Family.

Please see the Information Desk or email kward@woodbridgedct.org for full set of contest rules. This free program is open to the public. Space is limited, and in person registration is required.

“Butterflies in My Backyard” Lecture and Presentation

Spring is coming to the library! Victor DeMasi will join us on Thursday, March 23 at 7 PM for an INDOOR sunny day walk through his butterfly meadow in Redding. Along the way, we will view some of the rare and common species he has seen there in 40 years of stewardship.

An impressive display of specimens from the Yale Peabody Museum of Natural History will be shown; he will also explain life histories of some of our favorite species and how a butterfly garden promotes a diversity of aurelian beauties. Comments will include a discussion of butterflies in our changing environment with issues such as climate change and invasive plant species. The complex demise of the Monarch Butterfly will receive particular emphasis. He will go on to explore his studies in the biology of the Tiger Swallowtail.

DeMasi is a wetland conservation officer in Redding and a research affiliate at the Yale Peabody Museum of Natural History. Please register for this event.

Save the Date: Pumpernickel Puppets Return

Join the fun at the Woodbridge Library on Saturday April 1, 2017 at 11 a.m. when the Pumpernickel Puppets return with The Frog Prince.

Imagine a prince who has turned into a frog! Can a special princess save the day? This show is recommended for children ages 4 and older, with an adult. Please register online.

Pumpernickel Puppet shows are presented with a cast of colorful puppet characters, audience participation, live voices and sound effects and fast paced scripts that not only entertain, but stimulate children’s imagination and creativity.

A demonstration period follows every performance giving the audience some insight into what happens behind the scenes.

From the Director

I welcome the opportunity to reach a greater audience with this new newsletter. All of us at the Senior Center embrace collaboration with other town departments to cross promote and extend our programming and services to the entire community.

The Senior Center offers health, recreational, educational, & social activities for residents 60 years of age and older. The Center also provides a luncheon program as well as transportation services.

There are opportunities here for volunteering and we welcome your participation. For more information or to RSVP for programming please contact us at 203-389-3430 or jjglicksman@woodbridgect.org.

Summer Camp Registration Begins April 3

Beginning on Monday, March 27, Recreation will take registration for summer camp volunteer positions, Counselors in Training and Volunteers, for those who were enrolled in summer camp last year.

Counselors in Training (CIT) is for summer camp students entering 9th grade; Volunteers are for students entering 10th grade who have completed CIT.

Completing CIT does not guarantee a Volunteer position. After a student has completed both trainings they are eligible to be a paid Camp Counselor.

Open registration will begin on Monday, April 3 for any remaining spots. Online registration is not available for these programs. Students enrolling in CIT will pay the regular 6-week camp fee; Volunteers do not pay.

Summer camp will run from Monday, June 26 through Friday August 4. Registration for summer camp attendees will begin on Monday, April 3.
