

Microgrid Update; SRO and Pool Resolved

If you've come to Town Center lately, you've likely noticed colored flags in the ground and white spray-painted lines on the pavement. This is a visual indicator that our microgrid project is underway!

The Town's microgrid will connect seven municipal buildings to a fuel cell at Amity High School.

When the power goes out, the fuel cell will power the municipal buildings through the microgrid. This will help us provide uninterrupted service during outages.

Construction will continue along Newton Road and Meetinghouse Lane through July.

It is anticipated that the project will finish by late fall.

I am pleased to report that two potentially contentious Town issues have been resolved: continuation of the School Resource Officer at Beecher Road School for the 2017-18 school year and opening of the CCW pool for the 2017 season.

Municipal Elections:

May 1

Annual Town

Meeting: May 15

A School Resource Officer (SRO) is a specially trained local police officer assigned to work at a school. Both Beecher and Amity High School have SROs: Amity's is part of Amity's budget and this year there was an effort to switch Beecher's from the Police Department budget to the school.

The Beecher Board of Education did not feel it could cover the costs and, after hearing from Beecher parents, the Board of Finance added funding for the SRO.

Another issue of concern to many is the Country Club of Woodbridge pool.

It now seems that we will be able to open the pool this summer safely and at reasonable cost, although the small bath house and kiddie pool will not be available. If the pool is to continue beyond this year, it will require a significant financial investment; that decision will fall to the new Board and Commission members who take office in July.

— First Selectman Ellen Scalettar

Fire Department Offers Grilling Safety Tips

The Woodbridge Volunteer Fire Department and Fire Marshal urge you to grill safely.

General grilling tips

*Grills should only be used outdoors and not near the home, deck railings or under eaves and overhanging branches.

*Keep children and pets away.

*Remove grease or fat buildup from the grills and in trays below the grill.

*Never leave your grill unattended.

Propane grills

Before you use your grill, check:

*the connection between the gas (propane) tank hose, regulator and cylinder, and where hose connects to burners. Tighten if loose.

*for potential leaks: Apply soap and water to the hose. Turn the propane tank on. If there is a leak, there will be bubbles around the hose. If there are bubbles, turn off tank and have grill serviced before using again. If the leak doesn't stop, call the Fire Department immediately.

When the grill is on:

*If you smell gas, turn off gas tank and burners.

*If smell stops, get the grill serviced by a professional before using again.

*If smell continues, move away from the grill and call the Fire Department. Do not move the grill.

Charcoal grills

*If you use a starter fluid, use only charcoal starter fluid. Never add charcoal fluid or any other flammable liquids to the fire.

*Keep charcoal fluid out of the reach of children and away from heat sources.
*When finished, let the coals completely cool before disposing in a metal container.

Town Expands No Smoking Policy

At a recent meeting, the Board of Selectmen adopted a new no-smoking policy.

Previously, the Town's policy prohibited smoking in all Town buildings and Town-owned vehicles.

The new policy extends the smoking prohibition to within 25 feet of an entrance to any Town building. The policy also prohibits smoking at Town-owned outdoor recreational facilities, including playgrounds, athletic fields and parks.

Electronic smoking is also prohibited.

"This expanded policy is designed to protect and enhance indoor and outdoor air quality and contribute to the health and well-being of all Town employees, residents and visitors," said First Selectman Ellen Scalett.

First Selectman Visits Pixels 2 Press

Pixels 2 Press recently moved to Woodbridge from Norwalk. First Selectman Ellen Scalett toured the new-to-Woodbridge business as part of the Town's "Shop Woodbridge, Dine Woodbridge, Try Woodbridge" campaign.

Pixels 2 Press offers digital photography and retouching, photo composition, and large format printing such as trade show displays and in-store marketing displays.

Partners Ed Belenski and Bob Ardolino (pictured left to right with Scalett) mostly work for other businesses but showed Scalett examples of their retail work -- custom family photo "memory boards."

"This is amazing," she said marveling at one display showcasing the clarity of wedding photos from the 1940s and 50s. The idea started when Belenski made one for a family funeral.

The duo scan photos (and return the originals), and correct the coloring and lighting and remove any grain or grit.

They brought Pixels 2 Press to Woodbridge to reduce their commute -- Belenski lives in Woodbridge and Ardolino in Northford. Already they have created banners for their landlord and a neighbor business and are talking with other local businesses about creating signage.

"We didn't realize all the business opportunities we'd find moving here," says Belenski.

Patrons Create Fund for Library Programming

They say that books give wings to the mind and flight to the imagination. For life-long learners like Gerry Eckhardt, her first memory of visiting a library stems back to Waterbury where, as a young girl, she would read anything and everything she could during the summer months at the Silas Bronson Library.

"My upbringing was modest, but my parents' value of education was paramount," Gerry said. "At an early age I developed a special appreciation for our local library and the opportunities it presented. Now, reflecting on this later in life, I believe that you're never too old to learn or to enjoy learning."

Libraries have always had a special place in Gerry's heart, ranging from service as the President of the Friends of the Seymour Public Library and volunteering as the librarian for Chatfield School. Gerry and her husband, Harvey, are also active members of the Woodbridge Town Library, where they have come to enjoy its engaging cultural programming.

This love of learning compelled Eckhardt to establish a fund through the Valley Community Foundation to support adult cultural and arts programs at the Woodbridge Town Library that will help attract more patrons and provide alternatives to other local programs. "Through our fund I hope to support stimulating programs for adults in the same way I encouraged my children and students to enjoy learning," Gerry said.

"The Library is immensely grateful to Gerry Eckhardt for her tremendous generosity in setting up this fund," said the Library's director, Eric Werthmann. "We are excited that it will allow us to continue to present inventive, thought-provoking programs that explore ideas, cultures and the arts."

The fund can be contributed to by anyone wishing to support adult cultural and arts programs at the Woodbridge Town Library. Contributions are tax deductible. You can visit www.valleyfoundation.org, click Donate Online at the top right corner, and on the following page, manually enter "Eckhardt" into the field box. Additionally, if there is a preference to donate by check, checks can be made out to either Valley Community Foundation or VCF, with the name of the Eckhardt's fund in the memo line. For more information please contact John Ready at the Valley Community Foundation at 203-751-9162.

From the Director

This month starts a new chapter for our Center! The Human Services Commission and the Board of Selectmen approved a name change: what was the "Senior Center" will now be known as the "Woodbridge Center."

The new name reflects efforts to reach a broader audience with programs of health, wellness, nutrition, exercise, education, recreation, transportation and socialization. All Woodbridge adults 60 years of age and older are welcome.

We are eager to accommodate an expanding population. According to the state Department on Aging, Connecticut residents 60 and older make up 20% of the state's population. In Woodbridge residents 60 and older are about 30% of the town's population. The town is planning for a future that includes a growing number of active, older adults.

First Selectman's Youth Award Winner Named

First Selectman Ellen Scalett and Woodbridge Youth Services announce the 2017 winner of the First Selectman's Youth Award as Jason Luciani. Jason, an Amity sophomore and the son of Thomas and Roxanne Luciani, has made a genuine commitment to the Town of Woodbridge and its residents:

Jason stepped up as a Senior Patrol leader in Boy Scout Troop 907 to plan and lead weekly meetings. He keeps the troop involved with Memorial and Veterans' Day ceremonies and the placement of flags on veterans' graves at all three Woodbridge cemeteries. The Troop prepares and serves food at Columbus House and supports a huge food drive to benefit the local food bank. His Eagle Scout project is locating veterans' graves in Woodbridge to replace missing or broken flags, and plans to memorialize these veterans through signs indicating their grave locations and the wars in which they served.

Human Services Vice Chair Mary Leigh Sabshin, Deputy First Selectman Beth Heller, Jason Luciani and Youth Services Director Nancy Pfund.

Jason is also active in clubs such as Outdoor Venture and Leo Club, and serves Our Lady of the Assumption Church as an altar server and choir member. He helps the parish with holiday food baskets and Christmas gifts.

Other involvement includes assisting with the Garden Club Spring Sale and with the First Church of Christ Strawberry Festival. Jason's fellow scouts nominated him for the Order of the Arrow with whom he builds trails.

He has performed volunteer work at the Woodbridge Country Club, and spends time at Coachman Square.

Jason received his award from Deputy First Selectman Beth Heller at the Human Services Volunteer Tea on April 20. People's United Bank in Woodbridge V.P./Market Manager Garrett Luciani presented Jason with a $100 check for his dedication and service, and State Senator George Logan honored Jason with a State of Connecticut citation.
