PRESS RELEASE

September 16, 2022

Homicide Reward

The State of Connecticut is offering a reward of up to $25,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction in the November 2019 shooting death of Abdur Terrell of New Haven. Terrell was found deceased in a wooded area of Woodbridge near the New Haven town line, and his death was ruled a homicide. Terrell's phone and personal belongings were located on the shoulder of Woodfield Road in Woodbridge on the evening of November 9, 2019, approximately twenty-four hours after Terrell's family reported him missing to the New Haven Police Department. Investigators determined that during the hours prior to his death, Terrell was seen in both Hamden and New Haven.

The case is being investigated by the Woodbridge Police Department. Anyone with information about the homicide of Abdur Terrell should contact the Woodbridge Police Department's Investigative Services Unit at (203) 387-2511.
