

EARLY VOTING

WHY, WHAT, WHEN AND HOW

ANNA DICKERSON - REGISTRAR OF VOTERS

PENNELL HAMILTON - REGISTRAR OF VOTERS

WHO IS A REGISTRAR OF VOTERS?

- In Connecticut elections are managed locally
 - Each town has at least 2 Registrars of Voters – one from each party
- The Registrars are responsible for:
 - Maintaining the Voter Rolls
 - Conducting an annual canvass of voters
 - Conducting Voter Outreach
 - Running Elections
 - Early Voting
 - Supervised Absentee Voting
 - Election Day
- Registrars must:
 - Pass a set of Registrar certification courses
 - Maintain Election Moderator certification
 - Complete annual continuing education hours
- Registrars Run for election every 2 – 4 years

RUNNING ELECTIONS IS COMPLEX

- Elections in CT are designed to be:
 - Fair - Every vote is counted
 - Transparent - All election activity is done in full public view
 - Accessible - Every citizen eligible to vote is afforded the chance to vote
 - Inclusive - Every voter is treated the same
- CT General Statutes – Title 9 governs elections
 - Has 760 different sections
 - Printed out, covers several hundred pages of material
- Woodbridge has approximately 7,000 registered voters
 - Two Districts
 - One Polling Place

WHAT HAPPENS TO MY EARLY VOTING BALLOT??

- At the end of each Early Voting Day
 - The Early Voting moderator and staff will count the ballot envelopes and reconcile with the sign in log and ballot count.
 - The ballot envelopes will be sealed in a secure envelope.
 - The registrars, moderator and early voting staff will sign off on the count
- Ballots will be stored in the registrars' safe until election day,
 - Ballots will be placed in our Fireproof cabinets.
- On Election day Early Voting ballots along with Absentee ballots will be transported to the counting team by the Town clerk.
 - Early voting ballots will be counted in a fashion similar to absentee ballots.

The image is a composite graphic. The background is a dark, semi-transparent American flag, showing the stars and stripes. In the lower center, there is a dark gray ballot box with a slot on top. Above the box, four hands are shown from different angles, each holding a white ballot and about to drop it into the slot. The text 'QUESTIONS??' is written in a white, serif font across the middle of the image, partially overlapping the flag and the hands.
